

The great news is The Tumbling Tumbleweeds don't sound like the SOPs. Or Riders in the Sky, or Sons of the San Joaquin. They sound 100% like The Tumbling Tumbleweeds... and that, folks, is simply wonderful!

- Rick Huff, The Western Way Magazine

What folks are sayin'...

"Worthy of a Disneyland frontier floor show!"

- Mandalit Del Barco, Arroyo Monthly Magazine

"The best young talent to come along in a long time!"

-Joe Hannah, Founding member, The Sons of the San Joaquin

"Delightful and refreshing as a breeze across the desert!"

- Bob Stane, The Coffee Gallery Backstage

"Traditionalists with vision and Western songwriting skills!"

-Mike Mahaney, Founding Member WMA

"Great things are expected from this group whose talent is boundless!"

-Don Cusic, The Western Way Magazine

"I certainly suggest putting them at the top of your list of shows to see!"

- Paul Hendel, Western Music Singer/Songwriter

"Closer to the Sons of the Pioneers you cannot come! I fell hook, line and sinker!"

-Lillies Ohlsson, Music Critic, "Kountry Korral" Magazine, Sweden

"Playing from 'Tumbling Tumbleweeds' on The Western Music Channel is how we give our listeners real cowboy music. Good work, guys!"

-George Fair, President/Director of Programming, Heartland Public Radio

"They are the future of Western Music! Their harmonies are tight and the creativity they show is something that's a missing element in western music today."

-Marvin O'Dell, Radio Host of "Around the Campfire"

HeartlandPublicRadio.org

"The Tumbling Tumbleweeds definitely have the chops and the charm to be Western Music standard bearers to a new audience."

-Rick Huff, Music Critic, The Western Way Magazine

"Whereas earlier bands either find vocal quality unimportant, or leave it out altogether, the Tumbling Tumbleweeds make everything right again!"

-Country Home Magazine, Germany

"Smooth-as-silk harmonies and a jangling guitar mean The Tumbling Tumbleweeds are in the house!"

-Michelle Mills, Los Angeles Daily News
